Emergency Housing—Overnight, Day, and Temporary Shelters

The organizations below vary in the services they provide. Some will provide overnight shelter, while others may operate only during the day. Some will serve either women or men, and others will have different qualifying rules for children and families. Some organizations will work with clients on a day-by-day basis, while others will offer longer-term services and solutions planning. Some shelters specialize in treating substance abuse, and others focus on responding to intimate partner violence. We recommend contacting each organization until you find the best fit for your family and circumstances.
